ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT
OF THE
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF SNO-BEES, INC.

1. The name of the corporation is Sno-Bees, Inc.

2. The text of the amendments of the articles of incorporation of the corporation are as follows:
 - a. The first paragraph of the articles of incorporation is amended to delete the purposes set forth therein and to replace them with the following purposes:

To maintain and enhance snowmobile trails in Vermont as public facilities for the recreational use of the general public without charge in furtherance of the public policy of the state to encourage the development and maintenance of snowmobile trails and thereby also to reduce the burdens of government;

To actively seek and support the preservation and protection of our natural environment;

To promote the development of recreational areas within the state for the use of snowmobiles by the general public;

To render public service in case of emergency and/or disaster and thereby also to reduce the burdens of government; and

To teach and encourage the safe, courteous, lawful, and responsible use of snowmobiles.

 - b. A new third paragraph is added to the articles of incorporation, to read in its entirety as follows:

The purposes, management, and affairs of the corporation are subject to the following limitations:

(A) The purposes of the corporation are exclusively charitable purposes as specified in Section 501(c)(3), or any successor section of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any successor statute (the "Code"), and the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3), or any successor section, of the Code, or by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2), or any successor section, of the Code;

(B) No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member, director or officer of the corporation, or any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation), and no member, director or officer of the corporation or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation;

(C) No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided by Section 501(h), or any successor section, of the Code), and the corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office; and

(D) Upon dissolution of the corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, after payment of all debts and liabilities of the corporation of whatsoever kind or nature, its remaining funds and other property and rights shall be distributed, granted, conveyed and assigned for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3), or any successor section, of the Code, such exempt purpose or purposes to be selected by the directors of the corporation, including to the Vermont Association of Snow Travellers, Inc., so long as it then is exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(3), or any successor section, of the Code.

- c. A new fourth paragraph is added to the articles of incorporation, to read in its entirety as follows:

The corporation is a public benefit corporation.

3. The date each amendment was adopted is 2/19, 2025.

4. The approval of members is required for the amendments. The corporation does not have classes of members entitled to vote separately. There are 159 voting memberships outstanding. The number of undisputed votes cast for the amendments was sufficient for approval of the amendments.

5. Approval of the amendments by some person or persons other than the members of the corporation is not required.
